

June 4, 2010 • Santa Fe, New Mexico

Santa Fe is a city rich in Native American tradition and big-city modernity. Each year, visitors from around the globe flock here to enjoy the city's many historical and cultural offerings. To ensure you and your guests have an opportunity to enjoy some of Santa Fe's many attractions, special tours and excursions have been arranged specifically for our group.

Bandelier National Monument

9:00am-2:00pm

Travel to Bandelier National Monument where you'll descend into a canyon filled with the ruins of the Anasazi Indians, colloquially "the Ancient Ones." Located on the Pajarito Plateau of the volcanic Jemez Mountains, Bandelier was the home of the Anasazi from the eleventh to fourteenth centuries. Excavated over 90 years ago, these ruins were once home to over 200 people, ancestors of today's Pueblo Indians. Hundreds of petroglyphs carved by the original residents are still visible.

You may walk along easy paths past the remains of ancient Pueblo dwellings to the cliff dwellings where you can climb ladders to peer inside.

COST: $120 per person includes transportation, professional guide, lunch (entrée and non-alcoholic beverages), entrance fees, and tax.

Southwest Cooking Class

9:30am-1:30pm

Master the flavors of the real Southwest with a cooking class reflecting the unique cultural mix of Santa Fe. Our classes, taught by some of the best chefs in Santa Fe, are not only entertaining and educational, but delicious, too. Warm, spicy tastes and enticing aromas evoke Santa Fe's rich cultural traditions. Three classes on the traditional foods of New Mexico are at the heart of the Santa Fe School of Cooking. These classes allow you to experience this delicious cuisine, including local cooking techniques and the lore of the region. This class includes flour tortillas, carne adovada (red chile marinated pork), chiles rellenos, calabacitas (green chile, squash, corn), refritos, and sopapillas.

COST: $105 per person includes transportation, recipes, instruction, lunch and tax.

Walking Tour of the Historic Santa Fe Plaza

9:30am – 1:30pm

Walk through more than 400 years of history, art, and culture. Our guide presents an extraordinary introduction to Santa Fe and provides an entertaining, humorous, and accurate portrayal of the "City Different." Visit the historic Plaza and the Palace of the Governors (whose occupants have included government and military leaders from Spain, Mexico, the Confederacy, the U.S. and Indian nations). Learn about St. Francis Cathedral, and explore the Loretto Chapel and its miraculous staircase; the oldest church; and the capitol, and other major Santa Fe historical sites. The tour will finish at the O'Keeffe Museum, where guests can explore on their own for an hour before return.

COST: $80 per person includes transportation, guide, entrance fees, gratuities and tax.

Chimayo Tour with Lunch and Winetasting

10:00am- 3:00pm

Enjoy a drive through the beautiful sandstone formations into the lush Chimayo Valley. The tour will take us north of Santa Fe along the "High Road", passing through several small 18th and 19th century Hispanic farming communities before finally arriving at the village of Chimayo, located in a beautiful valley in the foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Stops include the charming Santuario de Chimayo, the most important Catholic pilgrimage site in the Southwest, Centinela Weaving, lunch at Rancho de Chimayo and Estrella Vineyards for a brief winetasting.

COST: $120 per person includes transportation, professional guide, entrance fees, lunch (entrée, dessert and non-alcoholic beverages), wine tasting, service and tax.
